REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The Lafayette County Board of Supervisors is requesting proposals from interested Certified Forester Firms or Certified Forester Individuals to provide consulting services to assist Lafayette County in evaluating and obtaining price for a Timber Sale on approximately 21.5 acres located just east of County Road 406 (map to be provided). The requested consulting services related to the Timber Sale are as follows and shall be provided and included in your proposal:

1. Timber inventory/cruise (20% or greater sampling intensity).
2. GPS-Mapping of subject area.
3. Provide Timber Stand Tables listing species, products and size classes with associated values.
4. Providing aerial imagery, base maps and topographic maps.
5. Written Timber Appraisal Report.
6. Electronic Delivery.
7. Preparation of Timber Sale Prospectus and marketing.
8. Assist County Engineer and County Attorney with Timber Deed Preparation and Sale Closing.
9. Flagging timber "sale area" boundaries.
10. Pre-logging conference and harvest/logging supervision.
11. Include the Timber Sale Administration Fee in a percent of sales.
12. Assist Lafayette County to set a Bid Date and assist in opening bids.

Each firm or individual submitting a proposal should be aware that it will be working with the County Attorney, County Planner/Engineer and the Lafayette County Board of Supervisors to accomplish this work.

Also, if timber sale bids are rejected, the Certified Forester Consultant will receive a set fee of $1,500.00 for services rendered.

Please submit your Proposal to Lisa Carwyle, County Administrator on or before 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, January 28, 2016 at P. O. Box 1240, Oxford, MS 38655 or the Lafayette County Chancery Building located at 300 North Lamar Blvd., Oxford, MS 38655
