The 2017 Volunteer Fire Assistance Grant is awarded through the Mississippi Forestry Commission and is for a maximum of $4,500 with no cost share on the County's behalf. Equipment has to be related to forest fire suppression and must approved prior to the grant submission.

The 2017 Homeland Security Grant is awarded through the Mississippi Office of Homeland Security and also has no cost share on the County's behalf. Equipment requests must come the "DHS approved equipment list". This grant is in relation to potential threats and hazards within our community.

Also, the grant documents, for both, are attached if you need them.
